NEWS RELEASE: Marion County's 2014 Early Voting Totals Surpassed

Marion County, FL. –October 31, 2018: Yesterday, we surpassed the total number of Early Voting ballots cast in the last Gubernatorial Election. With three days of Early Voting remaining, more than 27,000 ballots have already been cast compared to the 20,707 total Early Voting ballots cast in the 2014 General Election.

The first day of Early Voting, Thursday, October 25 was our busiest day ever for a Gubernatorial Election with 7,106 ballots cast. The sites with the highest turnout are the Marion County Election Center, Freedom Public Library, and the Mulberry Center. Marion County voters have through Saturday, November 3 to vote early at any of our nine convenient sites which can be located at VoteMarion.com. Unofficial turnout can be tracked at VoteMarion.com/Turnout.
